Implementation of new technology in Lohit

ITANAGAR, Sep 15: The Krishi Vigyan Kendra (KVK), Lohit district has started magur (Clarius batrachus) cultivation in Kherem village. The progressive farmer Chow Sujanta Mansai showed his interest for adoption and as per the guidance made all the arrangement for semi intensive type magur cultivation. The magur seedlings and feed have been distributed under guidance of Dr. Debasis Sasmal (SMS, Fishery Sc.), and Dr. Prasanta Kumar Mallick (Programme Co-ordinator, KVK, Lohit) under the supervision of Mr. M. Chowlu, PD ATMA cum DTO, Kherem, with an objective to implement 'Magur cultivation' and meet the protein demand by popularizing the technology to the rural people living in the disadvantaged regions.
