

ARUNACHAL TIMES

3rd march, 2015

Lohit KVK conducts farmers' awareness prog

NAMSAI, March 02: Krishi Vigyan Kendra, Lohit (Namsai district) in collaboration with Protection of Plant Varieties and Farmers Right Authority, New Delhi has conducted two awareness programmes for farmers at Alubari and Barbeel village respectively on February 26-27 last. A total of 112 farmers from different villages of Namsai sub-division and officers were present in the programmes.

Speaking on the occasion, Dr. D Sasmal, in-charge programme coordinator of the KVK spoke on importance and objectives of the programme. Dr. Debasish Borah, Subject Matter Specialist (Agronomy) thoroughly discussed on the topic "Protection of Plant varieties and Farmers Right Act, 2001", while Chandramani Singh, SMS (Horti) detailed about the possibilities of registration of available varieties of horticultural crops grown by the farmers of the district.