Demonstration on scientific pig farming

ITANAGAR, Jun 21: Demonstrations on scientific pig farming conducted by KVK, Lohit under ICAR-NRC on Yak began at Enten and Chongkham-I under the guidance of Programme Coordinator incharge, Dr. Debas

Sasmal at Namsai on Tuesday.

The units in both the villages will be maintained by women farmers, members of SHG-Khun Ta Nau Welfare Society and women beneficiaries of Chongkham village. Under the said programme, they were initially provided cross-bred piglets, feeds and medicines. These units have been developed as brooder units to supply good quality crossbreed piglets to the farming community.
